Chicago Ophthalmological Society

Frontiers and Controversies in Ophthalmology

13th Annual Joint Conference

Friday, April 7, 2017 ♦ Stephens Convention Center - Rosemont, Illinois

THE CONFERENCE AT A GLANCE

Clinical Session for Physicians – Rapid-fire talks on a variety of topics in all subspecialties; discussion panels take on challenging cases; three named lectures; advocacy subjects

OMIC Presentation – Learn about minimizing risk and improving patient safety; qualifies ISEPS members for the full 10% OMIC discount

Residents Working Lunch – An informal round-table discussion about “real world” issues

Practice Management Sessions – Topics for administrators and doctors, including health care reform; social media and the law; coding 2017; online patient reviews; managing challenging employees; time management

Ophthalmic Technicians – A day of lectures focused on clinical subjects, coding and chart documentation topics, and presentations focused on improving patient safety

Lunch with the Experts – Bring your complex or troubling cases to discuss with experts from a variety of subspecialties over lunch

Exhibit Hall – Learn about new products and services from nearly 50 ophthalmic companies and their representatives in a vibrant exhibit hall

Presidents’ Dinner – Join the leadership of ISEPS and COS along with your colleagues for a strictly social evening over a good meal at Gibson’s Steakhouse restaurant

OVERVIEW

This educational conference is sponsored by the Illinois Society of Eye Physicians & Surgeons (ISEPS) and the Chicago Ophthalmological Society (COS). Now in its 13th year, the meeting offers a wide range of clinical and practice management topics that will appeal to ophthalmologists in a variety of practice settings, as well as their administrative and technical staff.

ABOUT THE SPONSORS

ISEPS – The statewide association representing individual ophthalmologists and practices in areas relating to advocacy, practice management and training. COS – The oldest local ophthalmological society in the nation, established in 1893, providing superior clinical education to practicing ophthalmologists, as well as residents and fellows in training.

INTENDED AUDIENCE

Practicing Ophthalmologists • Residents and Fellows in Training
Ophthalmic Technicians and Assistants • Practice Administrators/Managers
