

Stevens Johnson Syndrome/Toxic Epidermal Necrolysis (SJS/TEN)

United States Burn Unit Symposium

Charles Bouchard, MD, MA

James Chodosh, MD, MPH

Ali Djalilian, MD

Darren Gregory, MD

Deborah S. Jacobs, MD, MS

Hajirah Saeed, MD

Kimberly Sippel, MD

Swapna Shanbhag, MD

Asim Farooq, MD

Arthur Sanford, MD

Elizabeth J. Phillips, MD

Saturday, March 13th
10:00 am - 12:00 pm CST

REGISTER TODAY

<http://bit.ly/SJS-TEN-Burn-Symposium>

Introduction and Overview

Charles Bouchard, MD, MA

Part I: Acute Care: Diagnosis and Medical Management

- SJS Overview and Pathogenomics Update 2021
- Documentation and ALDEN Criteria for Culprit Drug Assignment
- Acute Management: Ophthalmologist Perspective
- Acute Management: Burn Unit Perspective

James Chodosh, MD, MPH
Asim Farooq, MD
Kimberly Sippel, MD
Arthur Sanford, MD

Part II: Acute Care: Surgical Management

- Indications for Amniotic Membrane (AM)
- Techniques for Amniotic Membrane (AM)
- Questions and Answers

Darren Gregory, MD
Hajirah Saeed, MD

Part III: Chronic Care: Medical and Surgical Management

- Overview of Chronic Care
- Mucous membrane Grafting
- The Scleral Lens: Which lenses? When? Pearls and Pitfalls

Ali Djalilian, MD
Swapna Shanbhag, MD
Deborah S. Jacobs, MD, MS

Part IV: NATIENS Study

- Overview of NATIENS Prospective Clinical Trial
- Questions and Answers

Elizabeth J. Phillips, MD

Concluding Remarks

Charles Bouchard, MD, MA